

The Te Puke Tabloid

June, July, August 2025

Hello and welcome to our June, July, August publication of the Te Puke Tabloid. As you can see from all the happy faces, these guys have been really enjoying themselves.

Whether it be Sam having fun with slime, Sage milking the limelight, Adriaan sitting back and having a coffee, Brooke exploring The Historic Village or Jessie rocking out on electric guitar, these guys and gals know which way is up.

And the fun continues on the second page; Porcha knows the best places to get a deal and Abbie is a dab hand at fabric mache. Max, the new face of Kakahu (Fashion), Hunter posing, (naturally), Kyra eating, and Keita working on a recycled project. A small group visited the Tivaevae - treasured hand sewn art from the Cook Islands.

All the gals dressed up for "High Tea" at The Daily Cafe. Sponges, jam filled treats, coconut goodies and hot chocolate all got sampled and things were "tickety-boo".

D.K, Abbie, Nicole, Sam, Hannah and Kate-Lyn put on yellow vests and helped the Cancer Society sell daffodils for Daffodil Day. They raised over $250, well done champs!

Max, Nicole, Jessie, Hannah and Sage all very content and happy. Bryn, D.K, Hannah and Kate-lyn showing off their artistic talents, and learning new skills.
